RECALIBRATE Message Series

Recalibrate Your Thinking

For the week of January 5

1. On Sunday, we looked at two keystone habits of the Christian life – Bible reading and prayer. For you personally, what is the most compelling reason to engage with daily Bible reading and prayer in our lives?

Read Acts 2:42

2. What do you think it means to be 'devoted' to teaching and prayer?

Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9

3. Do you have a 'dedicated time and place' for reading the Bible and praying that works for you? If so, when and where do you spend that time? If not, when and where is a spot in your day that you can try to dedicate for these rhythms to be regular in your week?
4. Which routine part of your day – morning time, meal time, commute time, or bed time works best for you to engage with Bible reading and prayer? Why?
5. If you have kids, which one of these spots can you leverage best to practice together these rhythms with your kids (or encourage them to do on their own, then ask what they are learning once a week)?

Read Psalm 34:4-8, 11-14

6. What does it mean to you to desire God and pursue a deeper relationship with Him?
7. "The Bible is alive, it speaks to me; it has feet, it runs after me; it has hands, it lays hold of me" (Martin Luther, German priest and theologian). What might change in your life if you thought about God's Word this way more often?

Close in prayer for your group to focus on holding to or moving towards daily and dedicated Bible reading and prayer, done out of a desire to know God more fully in the year ahead.
